Half-price rooms and free Moët over Christmas

One of the best ways to enjoy the spirit of Christmas shopping in London is with the new Continental group's seasonal discounts of more than 50 per cent off selected hotel room rates. Available at the Four Seasons, Kensington, the Mandarin, Berkeley Square, the Churchill Suite, Portico Square, and Hotel New Continental London, Park Lane, guests must arrive on a double room for a night, including breakfast. The offer runs from 15 November 1999 to 17 January 2000, subject to availability. Those who book through Agents of Choice will receive a complimentary bottle of Moët & Chandon. For further details, please ring 020 7467 3271.

Chain reaction

Lucie Heskett-Brem's extraordinary gold chains twist and writhe as if they were alive. Known for the precision and fluidity of her work, Heskett-Brem has produced a beautiful necklace and bracelet in honour of prima ballerina Darcey Bussell. These, and others, are available to order from Bentley & Co at 8 New Bond Street, London W1 (0171-629 0651).

Private showing of Phédre

16 November (Seven Days Left), Tate Theatre, and other shows head the Almeida Theatre Company's glittering production of Tom Hughes's new version of Racine's Phédre, directed by Jonathan Miller. A gala evening will be held in honour of Sir John Toulson, the Almeida's chairman for six years, whose leadership has done much for the company's success. Ticket prices start at £50 for the private performance at the Almeida Theatre, St Martin's Lane, London WC2, and over £100, which includes a champagne reception. All profits will go towards maintaining the company's repertory archive programme, and supporting a new capital development programme. For details, contact Kate Shaw on 0171-255 1400.
